Descendants of George Peter Baker

Generation 1

1. George Peter\(^2\) Baker was born before 1700 in Strasbourg, Germany. He died after Sep 25, 1753 in Unknown. He married an unknown spouse between 1683-1730.

Notes for George Peter Baker:
On Monday, September 25, 1753 the ship Peggy, which had sailed from Rotterdam, Netherlands, and commanded by Captain James Abercrombie, landed at the Port of Philadelphia. On the passenger list 204B and 204C was the name of George Baker. From the period August 25, 1751 to October 1, 1754, the passenger lists of Germans entering the Port of Philadelphia records thirteen Bakers but only ONE George Baker. In fact, during the year 1753 nineteen ships carrying Germans entered the Port of Philadelphia but among the passenger lists there was only ONE George Baker.

According to a Baker Family record, George Baker brought with him three sons, George, Jacob and Peter and was followed some five years later by son Henry and daughter Elizabeth. "The oath of allegiance lists contained only the signatures of the adult males" thus explaining why the names of the younger Bakers did not show up on the passenger list.

The above information is from Ralph Beaver Strassburgher, Pennsylvania German Pioneers, Original List of Arrivals in the Port of Philadelphia 1727 to 1808.

Their home had been in the Ruhr Valley about three miles from Strasbourg, Germany. They were educated men and fluent in several languages. George, the father, and Peter were surveyors and stone masons, Jacob was a cabinet maker and a "man versed in the law" while son George was a "handy man" and "dreamer".

Son George, about 1758, married a talented English girl, Elizabeth Nicholson, at a fashionable church wedding in the City of Philadelphia. Her wedding trousseau was fashioned in London and family legend says it was of the finest materials and workmanship.

Where dates of descendants are known, or believed known, from family bibles, etc., the source will be noted and WFT (World Family Tree) dates and information changed.

This beginning Baker information is from WFT pedigree # 2030 while additions are made from various historical sources in Beaver County, Pennsylvania where the Baker family finally settled after arriving in Philadelphia.

Notes for George Baker:
George Baker and wife migrated to "Virginia Territory" and about 1771 they traveled down the Monongahela River to the Point, where a settlement was located at the junction of the Allegheny and Monongahela Rivers from which flows the mighty Ohio River. This location, of course, became known as Fort Pitt and later Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

They bought supplies and journeyed downstream looking for a home site. When evening came they made camp on the North side of the river at the mouth of the Big Beaver. They soon found they were not welcome as Indians on the bluff overlooking the camp shot arrows into the air, not to injure them but warn them that they were intruding as the recent treaty had opened lands to the south side to white settlers but the north was still Indian Territory. At daybreak they broke camp and started south. A few miles and they were at the mouth of a sizable stream (known in these 1900's as Raccoon Creek). They made their way to a point several miles from the Ohio where a small rivulet was tumbling down the hill. Investigating they found a good spring for a water supply and a spot for building a cabin. A new "adventure" was in the making. The spot was strategically located with the creek on one side and a trail, known in these 1900's as Broadhead Road, on the other.

The Baker family lived here several years in peace with their Indian neighbors until 1774, when Chief Logan's family was massacred, a deed which sent the Indians on a rampage against the white settlements. The Baker family was captured, the cabin burned, and they were taken on a long march to Detroit. Although the savages threatened death on numerous occasions, especially wanting to dispose of the small children, as they cried on the long marches, they did spare the entire family. They were in captivity until after the Burgoyne Surrender, October 17, 1777. Having been sold to the British, they were exchanged as prisoners of war and allowed to make their way to Virginia Territory on the South Branch of the Potomac, where father George and son Michael enlisted in the Army of the Revolution.[weigel.FTW]

Additional information is being researched through the book ... "That Dark and Bloody River", written by Allan Eckert. A Beaver County Times article, dated September 9, 2002 by Gino Piroli, indicates a passage from that book that contains a conflicting date with that of the family's legend.

The Baker homestead is now (2002) said to be split by the construction of PA Route 60. The above mentioned Beaver County Times article indicates that the home was actually on the East side of Route 60, where there now stands the remains of a shopping center, a McDonald's, and the main terminal of the Beaver Valley Transit Authority. The Baker Family Cemetery is on the West side of Route 60 on the top of a hill with single boulder. This Cemetery is maintained by funds from a trust by the Baker Family. Head

Michael returned to the Raccoon Creek area of Beaver County and operated a Grist and Carding Mill. He served as Justice of the Peace.

Additional notes of interest concerning the Michael Baker family from Mt. Carmel Church records are as follows:

July 29, 1831: Susannah Innis, Michael, Rosanna, Morton, Eliza, James, Jane, Eleanor, Mary Ann, children of Michael Baker were baptized.

It is not clear why the above names have not been located in any of the family records. There have been cases where it was a practice to baptize a child with a different name than that given at their "birth" and this could explain the omissions. Since children were normally baptized shortly after birth, it could have been the lack of a local church that caused these children to be baptized nearly 20 years after some of them were born.

Churches in the days of the early pioneers and our ancestors were significantly different than they are today, even though some present day churches may look upon certain acts as being unacceptable. The following was taken from the record of the Mt. Carmel Church and indicates the seriousness with which the members took the Bible's teachings.

October 15, 1831.... "Daughter of Michael Baker, Esq on Raccoon Creek." Miss Eleanor Baker and Miss Catherine Bruce applied to be restored to the communion of privilege of this church from which they have for some time been suspended for the sin of anti-nuptial fornication. They were invited to appear before us. When they came, we conversed with them in relation to their views and feelings, and also in regard to the nature of their repentance. After they had retired, the session resolved they go rebuked after sermon, in the presence of the congregation, and 2nd, that upon the public profession of their repentance and reformation, they be restored to the communion and fellowship of this church."

Note: As above, it should be noted by the readers that it is not clear which daughter carried the additional name of "Eleanor", spoken of in the church records quoted.

The following are additional notes from the Mt. Carmel Church records. These notes, although not all about the Michael Baker family directly, do in fact have bearing on the Baker/Weigel families.

November 17, 1832 - Mrs. Rosanna Baker, who had "forsaken the communion of this church" desired to be reinstated.

November 8, 1834 - Mrs. Jane Quinn became a member.

May 21, 1842 - Harrison Weigle received.

Notes for William H. Uselton:
William Uselton was born on his father’s farm near New Sheffield, PA on March 27, 1843. It is assumed that his family came from that area although definite information is lacking. An effort is being made to trace this family. The correct spelling of this name, in all probability, was Uselton. Many families use this spelling. It is said that the change made by William Uselton was prompted by official papers which came back from the Government after the Civil War. Corrections to Governmental Documents, in those days, were very difficult and it was much simpler to change a name to conform to the spelling used.

William served for four years during the Civil War in Company "I", 140th Volunteers, Pennsylvania. During those four years, he fought in many of the major battles of the War, including the Battle of Gettysburg. His name appears on the Pennsylvania Monument at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. After surviving the war, although wounded four times, it is ironic that following his return to civilian life, while attempting to repair a saw mill motor as a favor to a friend in Wampum, PA, he lost his left arm and suffered a severe head injury which necessitated his wearing a silver plate in his head the rest of his life.

Not long after his marriage in 1866 to Margaret Davis, William moved his family to New Castle, PA, where they made their home at 26 Etna Street. William is credited with having named this street after the old Etna Furnace where he worked for some twenty odd years as an Engineer. He was later employed as Master Mechanic at Rosena Blast Furnace, worked on various jobs as an Engineer, owned and operated a Coal Yard on South Mill Street in New Castle, and in his later years was an outstanding Agent for the Prudential Insurance Company.

William was active in community affairs. He served as “Poor Director” of the Borough, which at that time as the west side of New Castle. After this district was incorporated into New Castle, he served as Councilman.

William Usselton died April 10, 1916, at the age of seventy-three, and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery in New Castle, Pennsylvania

Notes for Margaret Davis:
Margaret Davis was born on her father's 600 acre farm near New Sheffield, Pennsylvania Her early years and schooling was that of a farm girl of that era.

In 1866 she married William Usselton. During their early married life they lived in New Brighton, PA where William owned and operated a "Handle Shop". Later the family moved to New Castle, PA where she continued to rear her family of thirteen children. (Four died in infancy).

Margaret was a devoted wife and mother and a kind and generous friend and neighbor, especially to those less fortunate than she and her family. Weigel lived in Raccoon Township, Beaver County, PA and in the 1888 writings "Warner's History of Beaver County" is listed as owning a farm of sixty-seven acres. From family historians we know that this latter farm was located on the Brodhead Road area of Center Township, Beaver County, Pennsylvania. These same family members place the building of the barn in 1897 and the house in 1898. The farm stayed in the family through his son Henry B. and his grandson Walker Jennings Weigel. "Jennings" Weigel owned and, with his wife and children, successfully operated "Weigel's Dairy" on the farm from xxxx through xxxx, when he retired and sold the farm.

The addition of these few pages to the "Record of the Davis Family" must be attributed to his interest, efforts and encouragement.

Notes for Mary Louise Hartenbach:
This is the obituary of Mary Hartenbach Brobeck published Wednesday, January 2, 2008 8:39 AM EST in the Beaver County Times.

It is with extreme sadness that we announce the death of our mother, Mary Hartenbach Brobeck, 83, of Center Township, who passed away at the home of her daughter on Saturday, Dec 29, 2007, surrounded by her loved ones from complications of Alzheimer.

She was the ultimate hostess, always able to stretch the meal to include one more, making every one who stopped feel welcome. Gram was an excellent cook, baker, seamstress, homemaker, secretary and bookkeeper. She was lovingly known as the “Candy Apple Lady” on Halloween and the best fudge maker at Christmas. She thought nothing of spending the entire night making Christmas or Easter outfits or even baby doll clothes. She was the strong, silent partner that helped to build the successful George M. Brobeck Company from the ground up. She was a former member of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, Monaca, and was a member of Faith Lutheran Church, Center Township.

Born Aug. 18, 1924, in Center Township, she was the oldest child of Howard M. and Ruth Meany Hartenbach. The sister of William H. Hartenbach, Robert A. Hartenbach, Patricia Gass and Frederick H. Hartenbach, all of whom preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by her husband of 62 years, George M. Brobeck on May 18, 2007.

She is survived by her children: Cynthia Brown and her husband, George; Rebecca McDowell and her husband, Terry, and Frederick H. Brobeck, all of Center Township. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and their spouses: Emily Brown Kirkham and her husband, Christopher of Hopewell; Dr. Sarah Brown and her fiancй, Kyle Bahr of Columbus, Ga. and Williamsburg, Va.; Carrie L. McDowell, William T. McDowell ll and his wife, Jill; Daniel A. McDowell, Kimberlee A. Brobeck and her fiancй, Phillip Hill, and Amanda K Brobeck, all of Center Township. She is also survived by her great-granddaughter, Stephanie; an aunt, Anne Waxler of Monaca; a brother-in-law, Dr. F.D. Gass of Coraopolis and very special cousins, nieces and nephews.

Our very special thanks to Karen who lovingly cared for Mom these past months and thanks to Good Samaritan Hospice who helped to make the longest part of the journey this past month more bearable.

Friends will be received today from 1 to 3 and 6 to 8 p.m. in the SIMPSON FUNERAL & CREMATION SERVICES, 1119 Washington Ave., Monaca, (724-728-4000), where everyone is invited to meet on Thursday by 10:30 am. Funeral services will follow at 11 A.M. Thursday in the Faith Lutheran Church, corner of Brodhead and Center Grange Rds., Center Township.

She will be laid to rest in Union Cemetery, Monaca

Stanley Clark Broeck Jr. - 08/05/2007

LAFAYETTE, CALIF. FORMERLY OF CENTER TWP. Stanley Clark Broeck Jr. passed away quietly at his home in Lafayette, California, among family and friends on July 26, 2007 from an aggressive form of brain cancer.

Born on November 7, 1946, in New Brighton, Pennsylvania, he was the first born son to Stanley Sr. and Jane McBurney Broeck. Nicknamed “Boug” by his father, he attended the Center Township Schools (PA) through the eighth grade before attending Aliquippa (PA) High School, graduating in 1964. At Aliquippa, he was a member of the track and volleyball teams, the National Honor Society, and the Hi-Y. He entered the United States Coast Guard Academy in June 1964; graduating from the USCGA in 1968. Stan earned his MBA from the University of California-Berkeley in 1978.

He served his country as an officer for six years, including an 11 month tour of duty in Viet Nam. His final assignment for the Coast Guard from 1972-1974 was in the San Francisco Bay Area, which became his primary residence until his untimely death.

Stan Broeck operated “The Broeck Company,” a residential appraisal company for more than 20 years. He was a dedicated father, a loving fiancée, and a giving and compassionate brother and friend. Stan will be remembered for his gentle smile, great sense of humor, compassion, and kindness. Those on the West Coast know well the stories of his family and Western Pennsylvania roots. Family was very important to him. People recognized his appreciation of simple things and serving others. Stan's death leaves a void for many who benefited from his leadership and support.

Stan is survived by his daughter Nicole, 24, and her mother, Cheryl Young, of Walnut Creek, CA; his fiancée, Kimberly Brown, of Lafayette, CA; one sister, Libby Tenison (Gary), Jackson, MI; three brothers: Robert Broeck (Paula), of Greencove Springs, FL; David Broeck (Gretchen), Salem, OH, and Kent Broeck (Shawni), Beaver Falls, PA; two aunts: Mary H. He was preceded in death by his mother, Jane (1988), and his father, Stanley (2002).

A memorial service will be held Sunday, August 12, 2007, at 4 p.m. at Mount Olive Lutheran Church, Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania A bereavement dinner will follow the service at the church fellowship hall.
In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting donations to the Stanley Brobeck Trust, established by Stan for the perpetual care of his daughter Nicole. Donations can be sent in care of David Nearon, Attorney at Law, 1212 Rossmoor Parkway, Walnut Creek, CA 94595.

Notes for Jason Barr:
Barr Serves Notice for 1998 Championships
from the Beaver Valley Times, May 25, 1997 by Jim Equels, Jr.

Beaver High School's Jason Barr has spent the season establishing himself as one of the permier track athletes in the area. But he took it one step fruther, establishing himself as one of the best in the State - not only for this year, but the next as well.

Jason Barr, a junior, finished second in the 300 hurdles. He has been working for two years now under the tutelage of his father, Don, who is Beaver's hurdles coach - something that has its good point and bad points, according to Jason.

"Sometimes during track season we're at each other's throats," he joked. No Beaver athlete has ever won a PIAA track title, meaning that he could make history next season.

Jason is understandably thrilled with his weekend accomplishments, but has higher aspirations for the future.

"My goal is to get a gold medal, and I haven't accomplished that yet."
