Generation 2

1.1. JOHANN DANIEL<sup>2</sup> WEIGLE (Johann Ludwig<sup>1</sup>) was born on May 14, 1745 in Grossen Linden, Oberhessen, Hesse-Darmstadt, Germany (lived in Lancaster County, PA). He died in 1819 in Moon Twp, Beaver County, PA. He married Anna Catherina Weibler on Dec 15, 1767 in First Reformed Congregation, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, USA. She was born in 1745 in Germany. She died on Sep 06, 1820 in Beaver County, PA.

Notes for Johann Daniel Weigle:

It must be remembered that during the days of the American Revolution, Beaver County, as we know it during these late 1900's did not exist. The county was organized in 1800 and the southern section, which had been divided off from Moon Township in Allegheny County, became known as "First Moon" and "Second Moon". The southwest corner of the county came from Washington County and retained its original name of "Hanover Township". Due to geographical distances for voting places, in 1814 the three townships were split into four (4): Greene, Hanover, Hopewell and Moon. Moon Township grew still smaller by the forming of Raccoon Township in 1833, Phillipsburg Borough in 1840, Potter Township in 1912 and Center Township in 1914. Still later, in 1932, the town of Monaca (previously Phillipsburg) was formed and the southern side of Beaver County was basically complete. So, as you read these items of record, keep in mind that the references to "Moon Township" in the 1700's and 1800's was actually what became known in the 1900's as "Center Township".

The earliest researched ancestor is Daniel Weigel. Daniel Weigle, who was a member of the Pennsylvania Militia was a private in Captain Jacob Wilhelm's Company, which was recruited mainly in Manheim Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania Daniel married Anna Weibler on March 15, 1767 according to records of The First Reformed Church of Lancaster, PA dated prior to 1939. It is believed that Daniel Weigel was born in 1745 and died in 1810, while his wife Anna, also born in 1745, died in September of 1820.

The beginning of the Weigel family in Beaver County is dated at 1787 when Daniel and Anna Weibler Weigel moved here from Lancaster County, Pennsylvania This date, however, has been disputed by the fact that the Lancaster County census of 1790 shows that the Daniel and Anna Weigel family still resided in Manor Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania The facts are somewhat confusing but it is felt that the 1787 date is most likely to be correct since when they moved to Beaver County, they purchased 400 acres of land from Jacob Bausman, a surveyor, with the deed dated June 18, 1787. Research of the Weigel prior to these dates has not been seriously undertaken in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania

The Weigel family became spiritual leaders early in their years in Beaver County. The Mount Carmel Church, with the congregation dating back to 1800, was the parent church of the present day North Branch Presbyterian Church. Due to the distance from the Northeast corner of Moon Township, attendance was not as good as the ruling elders and Pastor J.D. Ray desired. Pastor Ray visited the area and was told by Daniel Weigel that the Weigel's barn could be used for holding services during the worm weather and the house could be used when it got cold. Mr. Weigel guaranteed the minister $100.00 for preaching every three weeks. The proposal was accepted and work began in 1833. The attendance and interest was so good that it was decided to erect a church building, in 1834, on a parcel of land donated for that purpose by Daniel Weigel.

In 1837 a congregation was regularly organized by Rev. J.D. Ray and the elders of the parent church assisted for a time. George Baker, also of this family's lineage, became one of the newly elected elders and membership included, among others:

Notes for Susanna Innis Baker:

There is too much of a coincidence in this individual's name.

If one checks the notes of the children of Michael Baker and Rosanne Morton, one will find a recorded baptismal date for a list of children that researchers have not tied to Michael and Rosanne. One of the names listed as being baptized on xxxxx was "Susanna Innis". This is not a very common name. Given the dates of birth and connection with the Weigel family through the Church, it seems likely that this Susanna Baker is in fact the daughter of Michael Baker and Rosanne Morton.

Without proper proof this author will not complete the tie but research will continue with possible proof being found later.

Notes for Jason Barr:

Barr Serves Notice for 1998 Championships from the Beaver Valley Times, May 25, 1997 by Jim Equels, Jr.

Beaver High School's Jason Barr has spent the season establishing himself as one of the premier track athletes in the area. But he took it one step further, establishing himself as one of the best in the State - not only for this year, but the next as well.

Jason Barr, a junior, finished second in the 300 hurdles. He has been working for two years now under the tutelage of his father, Don, who is Beaver's hurdles coach - something that has its good point and bad points, according to Jason.

"Sometimes during track season we're at each other's throats," he joked. No Beaver athlete has ever won a PIAA track title, meaning that he could make history next season.

Jason is understandably thrilled with his weekend accomplishments, but has higher aspirations for the future.

"My goal is to get a gold medal, and I haven't accomplished that yet."
